Presentation Molveno:

Molveno (864 m a.s.l.) is a famous resort in West Trentino, located at the bottom of the Brenta Dolomites and the massive of Brenta and at the shore of the lake of the same name.

The area it embraces is to a vast extent part of the Nature Park of Adamello-Brenta, created in 1967 to safeguard this unique environment.

The most attractive features of the place are undoubtedly the peaks of the Dolomites of Brenta, home to many skiers, and the lake, the second-largest in Trentino.

By Car:

Brennero Freeway A22, exit at San Michele all'Adige; go on to Mezzolombardo; after the estate turn left either at the

- first crossroads in the direction of Fai della Paganella, Andalo and Molveno (25 km),
- or at the second crossroads in the direction of Spormaggiore, Cavedago, Andalo and Molveno (25 km).
- Coming from Riva del Garda along the state road 421 to Sarche, turn left and follow the road to S. Lorenzo in Banale. Once there, drive along the lake until you reach Molveno (54 km).

By bus:

A number of bus run daily from Trento or Mezzocorona to Molveno.
